

SEXUALITY, CITIZENSHIP AND YOUTH

2ND WORKSHOP

WEDNESDAY 6 DECEMBER 2017, 5-8PM

GRACE VAUGHAN HOUSE, 227 STUBBS TERRACE SHENTON PARK, WA

In partnership with the Australia Forum on Sexuality, Education and Health (AFSEH) and the WA Sexual Health and Blood-borne Virus Applied Research and Evaluation Network (SiREN), we are pleased to invite you to our second Western Australian workshop event. Join us for a late afternoon tea followed by a fun and stimulating discussion with speakers from across WA and Australia!

This event, which will take place at Shenton Park, is targeted at health and education professionals, teachers, researchers, policy makers and community leaders who are working to fuel progress in the fields of sexuality, education and health. The workshop will be an opportunity to gain insights into these issues and more; expand your professional development, and network with like-minded professionals.

The workshop will commence at 5pm for food and networking, followed by presentations commencing at 5.45pm.

HEAR FROM OUR HOSTS

Peter Aggleton (UNSW Sydney).

Roanna Lobo (Curtin University; SiREN).

Rob Cover (University of Western Australia).

RSVP OR FOR MORE INFORMATION

To RSVP or for more information please email siren@curtin.edu.au.

Please RSVP by 1 December for catering purposes.

AND GUEST SPEAKERS

Mary Lou Rasmussen (Australian National University) – Changing LGBTQ Youth Social Policy since 1990.

Kai Schweizer (Peer educator, Youth Affairs Council of WA) – Trans representation in the contemporary Western media.

Daniel Marshall (Deakin University) – Archives and the representation of queer young people.

Leigh Hill (editor, Out in Perth) – Role of LGBTQ community media for young people.

Renee Newman (WAAPA) – Filmmaker and director of film It's Not Just Me, Renee will be discussing and introducing the film with focus on young people's gender transition experiences in Western Australia.

Sam Winter (Curtin University) – Discussant.